NBTA Executive for 2023

I am pleased to announce that Justin Keast will continue as Chairman of the NBTA in 2023 supported by Cameron Dunn and Mark Anderson as Deputy Chairmen. Anthony Germanchev starts the year as Executive Director with Executive Members: Mitchell Lancaster, James Zarb, Ross Coleman, Jason Stables and we welcome Brodie Tieman as a new executive member for 2023.

ADG Code – Full review

The NTC is conducting a full review of the Australian Dangerous Goods Code. A high-level update of the ADG Code happens every two years but this is the first full review since 2007.

The focus is on the transport of dangerous goods by road and rail. Debra Kirk, NTC Project Manager and main contact for the review will be speaking at our upcoming events. Be in attendance and you'll be fully briefed and up to date with the latest changes to the code.

Delivering a world standard ADG Code

A code that serves the best interests of all parties

We're conducting a comprehensive review of the Australian Code for the Transport of Dangerous Goods by Road & Rail to deliver a code that is contemporary and aligned to international practices, but also recognises risks unique to the Australian transport environment.

NBTA Education and Awareness program launch

We will be launching our DG Education and Awareness program next month. This program has been developed for loaders, drivers, supervisors, managers and DG transport professionals aimed to improve dangerous goods regulatory awareness and better understand their responsibilities. It can be access online and comprises 12 modules. The Education and Awareness program will be launched at our Sydney meeting on 28 February
